

Participation points or P-Pts

Explained

- Defined: vocabulary words gained on a daily basis in which all students are responsible for. Identified at the beginning and defined throughout class.
- If tardy or absent you are responsible for the words, but don't receive credit for them unless arranged prior to your absence.
- Each day is worth 2 points—no matter how many words are presented.

Expectations to be met to earn p-pts daily

1. Have folder with p-pt sheet in it and seated when bell rings
2. Not late and do not use pass the entire period
3. Write words down in folder at the beginning of class
4. Throughout class, listen for words and their definitions and take notes
5. End of class, exit cards are used for definitions of the previous day's words

Other important information

- Each p-pt word will be on unit quizzes and final exam
- For unit quizzes, must write out definition (no matching)
- Must have accurate definition and all blanks on p-pt sheet filled!!
